Student Administration

Student Centre in MyND Portal

Student Centre is the secure web portal where students can view their personal information, current enrolment and academic history, including their grades and graduation status. Students can also add and change their enrolments and update their contact details. More information on how to navigate the Student Centre is available at notredame.edu.au/current-students/your-enrolment/student-centre.

The Student Centre can be accessed through your MyND Portal, or via mycampus.nd.edu.au/psp/CSPRD/SELFSERVICE

Enrolment

Students should enrol in their courses prior to timetable sign-up, to enable them to complete their class allocation. Students can enrol via the Student Centre.

Changes to your enrolment

Students are responsible to ensure their course enrolments (whether adding, dropping, or swapping) are relevant to their programs at the time the enrolment is made. Students need to take into consideration any regulations relevant to their program of study, such as prerequisites, and their progression. It is strongly recommended that students discuss all enrolments with their School before taking any action.

Appeals

Students have the right to make an appeal against various decisions of the University, including their grade.

Students with concerns about their grade must first discuss the issue with the lecturer or course coordinator.

Further advice on appeals is available in the Policy: Student Appeals notredame.edu.au/current-students/support/appeals-and-grievances.

Examinations and assessments

Students can access their examination timetables on the Notre Dame website. Final exam timetables are generally released two weeks before the relevant examination period commences. This also applies to students sitting alternative, deferred or supplementary exams.

Alternative examination conditions

The Access and Inclusion Advisor can organise alternative examination arrangements if students have a disability or medical condition that will hinder their exam performance.

Contact the Access and Inclusion Advisor by emailing fremantle.accessandinclusion@nd.edu.au as soon as possible to ensure individual arrangements can be put in place. A 'Request for Assistance' form will need to be completed and submitted with supporting documentation signed off by a health professional.

Deferred examinations

Students may apply for a deferred examination on medical or compassionate grounds due to illness, accident or other exceptional circumstances beyond their control. Deferred examinations will not be granted if a student mistakes the date, time, venue or even if holiday arrangements have been made and paid for during the exam period. Students are expected to keep the entire exam period free of other commitments so they can sit for all their exams which may include Saturdays and in exceptional circumstances, during the evening.

If students miss an exam due to illness or other unforeseen circumstances beyond their control, they must:

1. Contact their School Administration Officer.
2. Complete an 'Application for Deferred Examination' from the University's website.
3. Attach supporting documentation, such as a medical certificate or police report, with the completed forms. Students MUST submit supporting documents.
4. Submit the form and supporting documents no later than three working days after the scheduled exam.

If students are granted a deferred exam, advice of this exam will be sent to their Notre Dame email account. The deferred exam will usually take place during the following Summer Term or Winter Term exam period. It is the student's, responsibility to check the date and time of their deferred exam. Students will not be permitted to apply for an extension of a deferred exam unless there are exceptional circumstances.

A notation of DE will appear beside the course on the students record if a deferred exam has been approved.

Examination results

Release dates for exam results will be published on the website, under Calendars and Timetables (Fremantle), Fremantle Campus – 2021 Key Dates.

Results will be available in your Student Centre. To ensure the safety of your personal information, University staff are not permitted to release examination results or Student ID numbers over the phone. Examination results are not released to students who have any fees, library items or fines outstanding.

If there is a change to a student's academic status, this will also be displayed in their Student Centre. All students commence on 'Good Standing'. If their academic progress is not satisfactory they will be placed on 'Conditional'. If this occurs for two consecutive semesters, a student will be asked to show cause why their enrolment in their program or at the university should not be terminated or suspended. If the show cause application is denied a student's enrolment at the University will be suspended, or their enrolment in their program will be terminated depending on their results.

Extensions on assignments

Schools have procedures in place for students to request an extension of time to hand in their assignments without penalty if they have genuine difficulties due to circumstances beyond their control. Refer to School Regulations, or speak to the School Administrative Officer for information on the procedures relevant to the school before the assignment is due.

Special consideration

A 'Request for Special Consideration' form should be submitted as soon as possible and accompanied by supporting documentation. Submission should be no later than three working days after the date of the relevant examination.

A course lecturer may grant special consideration for an assignment or project and this must be submitted no later than three working days after the due date of the assessment item or project.

Supplementary examinations

Only the Board of Examiners may grant a supplementary examination for a course. Students may be eligible for a supplementary examination if:

- they have obtained a mark of at least 45% in the course;
- the course they have failed is a final course required to complete their degree; and
- the Board of Examiners form the view that the circumstance of their failure in that course was due to circumstances beyond their control. If granted a supplementary exam the notation of 'SP' will appear beside the course on the student's record. The student will also receive a letter advising them they have been granted a supplementary exam. The supplementary exam will usually take place during the next main exam period. It is the student's responsibility to check the date and time of their supplementary exam.

If a supplementary examination is completed, the student will be awarded a grade of either Pass (P) or Fail (F).

Database photographic record

The University requires that all students have their photo on their student record on the database. This will assist your lecturers and tutors with identification and other administrative processes. The same confidentiality and privacy rules will apply to your photo record as with your other student records.

Transcripts

Students can download an unofficial record of their academic transcript from the Student Centre at any time, free of charge. The University does not supply unofficial transcripts. An official transcript of your academic results can be obtained from Student Administration and Fees for $20.

Official Transcripts will be uploaded to the National My eEquals database. Students or approved third parties can access the official transcripts from My eEquals. For further information on My eEquals please go to notredame.edu.au/current-students/your-enrolment/digital-records-and-my-equals.

Past students wanting transcripts posted must complete a transcript request application form and submit proof ID along with it. Official transcripts will NOT be emailed to students under any circumstances.

Withdrawal from courses

Students can withdraw from courses via the Student Centre. There are three important dates each semester for withdrawal from courses that students need to be aware of:

Enrolment Date: The last day students can enrol in courses for a particular study period.

Census Date: The last day students can withdraw from courses for a particular Semester/Term without either financial or academic penalty.

Academic Penalty Date: The last day students can withdraw from courses for a particular Semester/Term without academic penalty (N.B. Financial penalty will still remain).

Please visit notredame.edu.au/current-students/your-enrolment/calendars-and-timetables-for-census-dates.

Important: Non-standard census dates and academic penalty dates will apply to some courses. Please ensure to visit the website above for confirmed dates, or contact the relevant School.

It is the student's responsibility to amend their enrolment in their Student Centre.

Penalties (financial and academic) apply if not withdrawn by those dates.

International Students

As an international student you should speak with the International Officer at Student Administration once you are enrolled if you require assistance with academic matters, such as:

- electronic confirmation of enrolment (eCoE)
- withdrawing from programs
- renewing your visa
- advanced standing
- leave of absence
- confirmation letters

The International Officer is available during office hours to discuss any problems you have with regard to your studies at Notre Dame or documents required to extend your visa. The University is required to report to the Department of Home Affairs with regard to changes of program, withdrawal from program or unsatisfactory academic progress.

Study Load

You are expected to complete your Program within the time specified on your eCoE. This requires you to be enrolled in a full-time study load each semester (ie. 100 credit points each semester).

You can only reduce your study load in limited, exceptional circumstances and you will be required to provide detailed supporting documentation (ie. Medical Certificate)

Students that reduce their study load may not complete their Program outlined in their eCoE. Student's that have no formal approval to reduce their study load may have their request for an additional eCoE declined.

Satisfactory Academic Progression

It is a condition of student visa holders to achieve satisfactory academic progress each semester. If you are identified as a risk of not making satisfactory academic progress, you will be asked to attend a progress meeting (Intervention Strategy) to agree upon measures to help you improve your progress.

Passport

You are required to have a valid passport for the duration of your stay in Australia. If your passport is due to expire during your studies, you will need to have it renewed and a copy sent to the International Officer in Student Administration.

Visas

If you are an overseas student, your student visa will be issued for the duration of your program. It is important to note any extension of time to complete your program will have implications on your student visa and can incur additional costs. An overseas student who has had an extension of time must advise the Department of Home Affairs.

Students should contact the Department of Home Affairs with questions relating to specifics of their visa.

Student visa holders are covered by the Education Services for Overseas Students (ESOS) legislative framework. It is important student visa holders understand their rights and responsibilities under the ESOS framework notredame.edu.au/about/policies/student-policies.

It is a condition of your student visa that you inform Student Administration of any change of address and contact details within seven days of the change. This can be achieved by students through the Student Centre Self Service and emailing the International Officer of the updates. Student Administration will inform the Department of Home Affairs of this change on your behalf.

Employment

As of April 2008, most student visas have been granted working visa rights at the time of application. This means 40 hours per fortnight when your program is in session and unlimited hours when your program is not in session.

Please contact Department of Home Affairs via homeaffairs.gov.au regarding working eligibility for yourself and/or dependants if you are unsure.

Students requiring documentation to be signed by the University, or a Confirmation of Enrolment letter for your employer advising when your enrolment is out of session, should contact the International Officer in Student Administration

Overseas Student Health Cover (OSHC)

Medical insurance is compulsory for all international students holding a Student Visa in Australia and their dependents (spouses and children under 18 years old) while they study and during their stay in Australia.

Most of our students are covered by Bupa (oshc.bupa.com.au/get-bupa), which is the University's preferred provider. If students wish to use another provider, they will need to make their own payment arrangements and show evidence of payment for visa application and enrolment purposes.

OSHC covers international students for medical costs. Always keep your card in your wallet/purse, especially when going to the doctor (GP).

It is your responsibility to renew your cover BEFORE it expires. Health cover can be renewed online via oshc.bupa.com.au/get-bupa or by the representative from the health insurance company (Bupa) who works on campus at Student Services / ND7 on Mondays and Thursdays from 1.30 to 5pm.

Student Association

The Notre Dame Student Association (NDSA) was created in 1996 for students, by students. Located in Prindiville Hall / ND3, the NDSA reflects the vibrant energy of Fremantle and our university.

At the close of each year, the Student Association Council is elected to represent Notre Dame's student body. Our passionate and skilled team are here to help you have a positive and social experience here at Notre Dame.

We primarily organise social events, look after clubs and advocate for welfare and academic needs during your university career. Whether you have a question, suggestion or concern, we would love to hear from you. You are an automatic member of the NDSA upon enrolment so we hope that you will help us create a strong student voice on campus and get involved.

Check out our website ndsacom.au to find out what we do for you on campus. Feel free to send us an email or come visit our reception desk which is staffed from 9am - 5pm every week day upstairs in Prindiville Hall. We'd love a chat!
