

EMOTION, VIRTUE & PUBLIC LIFE

Academic Symposium featuring John Milbank & Alison Milbank

Friday 18 January 2019

The University of Notre Dame Australia, Sydney

The Institute for Ethics & Society is delighted to host the Emotion, Virtue & Public Life Symposium.

Drawing on new research at the intersection of moral philosophy, theology, and social theory, the academic symposium will address fundamental questions about the relationship between human goodness, human emotion, and the flourishing of civil society. The symposium will feature Professor John Milbank and Professor Alison Milbank, as well as short papers from Notre Dame Australia faculty including Professor Tracey Rowland, Professor Renée Köhler-Ryan and others.

Time: 12:15pm – 4:00pm

Venue: Moorgate Director's Boardroom, Ground Floor, 10 Grafton Street, Chippendale NSW 2008

Registration: Please email ies@nd.edu.au to secure your place.

Inquiries: Annette Pierdziwol (annette.pierdziwol@nd.edu.au), Tim Smartt (timothy.smartt@nd.edu.au)

An initiative of the IES's Moral Philosophy and Ethics Education \(MPEE\) Research Focus Area