7.1 Program Description - Bachelor of Laws/Bachelor of Laws (Honours)

The Bachelor of Laws and Bachelor of Laws (Honours) degrees provides a gateway to a rewarding career in Law and can provide a strong foundation for other career opportunities. This accredited degree will prepare you to work as a lawyer in a private practice, in government, as corporate counsel or in a not-for-profit organisation.

Program Description – Bachelor of Theology

The Bachelor of Theology is a three (3) year full-time (or equivalent part-time) program leading to a first professional qualification in theology. It is designed to provide students with a comprehensive grounding in Biblical and Theological Studies and associated disciplines. It is intended for those who wish to pursue such studies for reasons of personal growth and especially for those who have specific vocational and ministerial goals, in particular, those who intend to apply for leadership roles within education, health, social services and the professions generally.

7.2 Program Learning Outcomes - Bachelor of Laws/Bachelor of Laws (Honours)

Upon successful completion of the Bachelor of Laws and Bachelor of Laws (Honours) component of this Program, graduates will be able to:

- i. write effective and professional documents adapted to suit the purpose and audience;
- ii. develop and deliver effective and professional presentations adapted to suit the purpose and audience, using appropriate technologies;
- iii. synthesise, interpret and apply information in order to resolve legal problems;
- iv. demonstrate a sound knowledge of foundational legal concepts, principles and theories, and apply and transfer knowledge to diverse national, regional and international legal contexts;
- v. undertake self-directed learning with an appreciation of the value and importance of engaging in continuing professional development;
- vi. provide social justice in the community including the provision of legal advice on a pro bono basis.
- vii. use ethical and socially responsible decision-making skills;
- viii. critically reflect on the influence of Catholic and other philosophical and intellectual traditions on the law and on their role in resolving legal issues;
- ix. work responsibly and collaboratively in diverse teams to achieve shared outcomes;
- x. conduct independent legal research and employ appropriate legal research methods and sources to locate, evaluate, synthesise and present accurate, up-to-date and reliable legal sources; and
- xi. critically evaluate, analyse and deploy evidence in support of a research thesis and communicate their findings in both oral and written form. (Honours Only)

Program Learning Outcomes - Bachelor of Theology

Upon successful completion of the Bachelor of Theology component of this Program, graduates will be able to:

- i. articulate a broad and coherent body of knowledge, with depth in the underlying principles and concepts in the discipline of theology as a basis for independent lifelong learning;
- ii. critically, analyse, consolidate and synthesise knowledge;
- iii. demonstrate technical skills to a broad understanding of knowledge with depth in theology;
- iv. exercise critical thinking and judgement for identifying and solving problems with intellectual independence;
- v. communicate and present a clear, coherent and independent exposition of theological knowledge and concepts; and
- vi. apply theological reflection, knowledge and skills to demonstrate autonomy, well-developed theoretical and practical judgement and ethical responsibility.

7.3 Required Courses

7.3.1 To be eligible for the Bachelor of Laws / Bachelor of Theology Award, students must complete a minimum of 1075 Units of Credit chosen from the courses, as listed in Appendix A, comprising:

- i. 75 Units of Credit from three (3) Core Curriculum Courses or alternative courses as stated in Appendix A;
- ii. 575 Units of Credit from twenty three (23) compulsory courses from the Bachelor of Laws curriculum;
