The Character Education & Social Leadership Conference explores theoretical and practical questions about the connections between educational institutions, moral formation, and social leadership. The conference will be of interest to educators, executive leadership, and academic researchers interested in exploring the potential for moral formation at high-school and university.

About the Keynote:

John Haldane is Professor of Philosophy at the University of St. Andrews, a Senior Fellow at St. Andrews' Centre for Ethics, Philosophy and Public Affairs, the J. Newton Rayzor, Sr. Distinguished Professor of Philosophy at Baylor University, and one of the world's leading researchers on the Catholic intellectual and moral tradition.

He is currently a visiting scholar at The Scots College where he will deliver the 2018 Clark Lectures. In July 2018, he delivered the inaugural Moral Philosophy & Ethics Education Annual Lecture at The University of Notre Dame Australia.

Standards:

Character Education & Social Leadership will contribute 3 hours and 30 minutes of NESA registered PD addressing 6.2.2, 6.3.2, 6.4.2, and 7.4.2 from the Australian Professional Standards for Teachers towards maintaining Proficient Teacher Accreditation in NSW.
