

Study for a semester in London!

Students from the University of Notre Dame Australia can study at the London Campus of Notre Dame USA. This exciting exchange program runs every year in Semester 2 (mid-August to mid-December).

Students from the University of Notre Dame Australia, along with students from Notre Dame USA's main campus in Indiana, have the opportunity to travel to London for the Fall semester (mid-August to mid-December). Representing different colleges and studying a range of majors, exchange students are taught by Notre Dame USA academics and can enrol in courses in English, Literature, History, Philosophy, Theology, Economics and Political Science.

Notre Dame London's program is housed in Marian Kennedy Fischer Hall, a Grade II listed building just off London's bustling Trafalgar Square. Fischer Hall's facilities include technologically equipped learning and research spaces. The building's location in the heart of London allows countless academic, professional, artistic and service-based opportunities for our faculty, students and collaborators.

Requirements

Students interested in studying for a semester at Notre Dame London need to meet the same requirements as those for the exchange program to Notre Dame USA's main campus in Indiana.

Students must:

- have completed one year of study at their home institution.

Cost

As this is a reciprocal exchange program, students continue to pay their regular university fees for their program at the University of Notre Dame Australia.

However, students are responsible for their round-trip airfare, passport and visa-related fees, books and personal expenses (such as health insurance, accommodation).

If you are enrolled in a Commonwealth supported place, you may be eligible for OS-HELP, which is a loan that provides financial assistance associated with your overseas experience. Learn more on our website.

“ My time studying in London was a once-in-a-lifetime experience that has benefitted both my future career and personal development. I was so lucky to meet so many new and knowledgeable people who expanded on my education and helped facilitate access to a network of professionals around the world. This experience has really given me the confidence to get out of comfort zone, explore the world and all it has to offer. Not only was it extremely useful but it was overall such a fun and exciting period of my life. If you can, I really recommend exploring if studying abroad can work for you.”

Milly O'Brien, Bachelor of arts and sciences student, spent a semester in London in 2023.
