

Online Timetable Signup Semester Two, 2020

For Semester 2, 2020 you will need to sign up for the activities (lectures, seminars, tutorials, labs, etc.) for each of the courses you are enrolled in. This is completed online through Allocate +, the timetable signup software used by the University.

Please note: if your course is being conducted online, you will still need to sign-up to a specific session (unless otherwise instructed by your School).

Login:

1. To log into Allocate+ go to <https://allocate.nd.edu.au/signup/apstudent>. You can bookmark this address, however, if this page is kept open too long, it will cause a security tag creating an "invalid session" message. If that appears, please close the page and re-open it.
2. Log in using your username (student ID number) and password. Your password is the same password used when logging into a workstation (e.g. Campus Library computer) or Blackboard, or accessing email via the MyND Portal. If you are a new student to the University, logging in for the first time and/or have not changed your password yet, your password will be Nd followed by your date of birth. Your date of birth must be 8 characters with no slashes or dots in between, for example, if your birthday is 21st January 1984, then the password would be Nd21011984.

Availability: Allocate+ may be unavailable periodically outside of each Semester/Term due to maintenance on the system.

Timetable Signup will be available on the following dates:

Note that timetable signup will not be accessible for 60 minutes prior to the start times.
