

2023 Notre Dame School of Virtue & Character

CHARACTER & MORAL RESPONSIBILITY 3-12 OCT 2023

An initiative of the Moral Philosophy & Ethics Education program within the Institute for Ethics & Society.

The Institute for Ethics & Society is delighted to host the 2023 Notre Dame School of Virtue & Character (NDSVC), the fourth in this annual series.

Held over two weeks, the NDSVC allows selected participants to engage with new research on the topic of cultivating good character. The NDSVC features six keynote sessions, each running for 90 minutes. The sessions are structured around a pre-read paper and provide participants with the opportunity to engage directly with the speakers in a rigorous but friendly discussion of their work.

We welcome applications for participation via email. The 2023 NDSVC is a blended event: all sessions will be online, and some will also be in person at Notre Dame's Sydney campus.

Applications

For details on how to apply, please email
Tim Smartt: timothy.smartt@nd.edu.au
Applications are open now and will close on Friday 22 September 2023.

Selected participants will be provided with the draft papers two weeks prior to the conference.

Week One

ONLINE

TUES 3 OCT - 10AM

Professor David A. Pizzaro
Cornell University

➤ The Function of Moral Praise
(co-authored with Rajen Anderson and Shaun Nichols)

ONLINE/
IN PERSON

WED 4 OCT - 10AM

Associate Professor Stephanie Collins
Monash University

➤ Corporate Vice

ONLINE

THU 5 OCT - 10AM

Dr Robert Weston Siscoe
University of Notre Dame (USA)

➤ The Structure of Justice

Week Two

ONLINE

TUES 10 OCT | 10AM

Assistant Professor Anne Jeffrey
Baylor University

➤ Becoming Good

ONLINE

WED 11 OCT | 10AM

Professor Rachana Kamtekar
Cornell University

➤ On Debunking Virtue
(co-authored with Shaun Nichols)

ONLINE/
IN PERSON

THU 12 OCT | 10AM

Dr Adam Piovarchy
Notre Dame Australia

➤ Hate the Sin, Blame the Sinner?
How To Blame Agents for Vicious Traits