7 PROGRAM REQUIREMENTS

7.1 Program Description

The Graduate Certificate (Missionary Leadership) grounds students with the spiritual and intellectual foundations for the exercise of different expressions of leadership in the Church, with a particular focus upon the Church's evangelising mission. The Graduate Certificate also forms students with the skills and reflective praxis required for missionary leadership. Students learn about the origins of an increasingly secularized world, and ways that Christians can respond with Christ's words and works of love. Building on theological knowledge, students also reflect their own practice of leadership, through involvement at their local parishes. This program is a unique opportunity to grow in intellectual formation and in communal appreciation of what comprises Christian leadership in a mission context.

7.2 Program Learning Outcomes

Upon successful completion of the [name of program] graduates will be able to:

1. Understand and apply an advanced body of knowledge, with depth in the underlying principles and concepts in missiology and spiritual theology as a basis for independent lifelong learning
2. Critically analyse, consolidate, and synthesise knowledge
3. Demonstrate technical skills associated with an advanced understanding of knowledge
4. Exercise critical thinking and judgement for identifying and solving problems with intellectual independence
5. Apply theological reflection, knowledge, and skills to demonstrate autonomy, well developed theoretical and practical judgement, and ethical responsibility.
