Monthly Research Update

Dear A & S colleagues,

Here is your October edition of the Monthly Update.

As we charge towards the end of another year, take a moment to view the achievements of our colleagues and students, or get inspired by calls for papers and prizes,

And speaking of prizes, all the best of luck to current PhD student Emily Lanman, shortlisted for an award for her MPhil thesis, and to Leigh Straw, also up for an award for her book, and both in the Margaret Medcalf awards, to be announced in November.

Enjoy the issue!
