

Refuge Reimagined – Biblical Kinship in Global Politics

What resources might Christian scripture bring to the political challenge of displaced persons in the world today?

Join the event via ZOOM

DATE

Wednesday 15 September

TIME

5-6.30pm (Sydney)

RSVP

For Zoom registration email
john.rees@nd.edu.au

This symposium will discuss Mark and Luke Glanville's latest book Refuge Reimagined, written at the intersection of the disciplines of theology and international relations. The event is hosted by the Religion & Global Ethics program of the Institute for Ethics & Society at The University of Notre Dame Australia.

Speakers

AUTHOR:
A/Prof Luke Glanville,
Australian National University

RESPONDENT:
Ms Marianne Rozario,
St Mary's University,
Twickenham, UK

RESPONDENT:
Director Jayme Reaves,
Sarum College,
Salisbury, UK

AUTHOR:
A/Prof Mark Glanville,
Regent College,
Vancouver, CA

MODERATOR:
Prof John Rees,
Institute for Ethics
& Society