

THE UNIVERSITY OF
NOTRE DAME
 AUSTRALIA

“The skills I have acquired so far make it easier to determine sound and convincing arguments from weaker ones.”

Emile
 PHILOSOPHY STUDENT

HUMANITIES & SOCIAL SCIENCES SYMPOSIUM PROGRAM THURSDAY 21 JUNE

9.30am	REGISTRATION AND MORNING TEA
	POLITICS & LAW	PHILOSOPHY & ETHICS
10am	Welcome	Welcome
SESSION 1 10.05am	The tyranny of the majority vs the tyranny of the judiciary: What do we do when a judge “goes rogue”? Adam Jardine	Methods of inquiry: Existentialism Dr Cliff Stagoll
SESSION 2 10.55am	Fines, incarceration for fine default and the impact on Aboriginal people in Western Australia Tomas Fitzgerald	Exploring meaning and authenticity Dr Ines Pereira Rodrigues
11.50am	LUNCH
12.40pm	Alumni Panel	Alumni Panel
SESSION 3 1.10pm	What do human rights have to do with counter-terrorism laws? Dr Daniel Baldino	Scientific world view Dr Richard Hamilton
2pm	CLOSE

For further information please contact Charlene Ellison: 08 9433 0531 | charlene.ellison@nd.edu.au
 Venue: The University of Notre Dame Australia, Fremantle Campus