7 PROGRAM REQUIREMENTS

7.1 Program Description

Bachelor of Laws and Bachelor of Laws (Honours)

The Bachelor of Laws and Bachelor of Laws (Honours) degrees provide a gateway to a rewarding career in Law and can provide a strong foundation for other career opportunities. This accredited degree will prepare you to work as a lawyer in a private practice, in government, as corporate counsel or in a not-for-profit organization

Bachelor of Philosophy, Politics, Economics

The Bachelor of Philosophy, Politics, Economics is designed for students who want to understand human communities and society. The program trains future leaders and professionals who wish to make a difference in all walks of life. Students will learn to integrate knowledge, by focusing on how society can either promote or thwart human flourishing. Philosophy will provide the concepts and skills to identify questions and problems and the ability to think through them clearly and creatively.

Studying Politics, students will consider governance, leadership, and the importance of law and policy. Studying Economics, they will learn to solve a range of problems through economic reasoning. Bringing together these disciplines, graduates will appreciate the central importance of the human person's quest to lead a good life, working with others toward the common good. The degree will also equip students to be attentive to the role of religion within society, and the importance of civil disagreement in the public square. All students will have the opportunity to undertake an internship during their studies.

APPENDIX A: Law Honours

The Bachelor of Laws component of the Bachelor of Laws (Honours)/Bachelor of Philosophy, Politics, Economics is offered with Honours. There are specific admission requirements for the Honours degree (as set out below) and these requirements should be read in conjunction with the Policy: The Award of a Degree with Honours.

1.1 Honours in the Bachelor of Laws (Honours)/Bachelor of Philosophy, Politics, Economics

1.1.1 General Definitions

Eligible Student is a student who has satisfied the criteria for being invited into the Honours program set out in 1.4(iv) below.

Graduating Class means the body of students who, as at 1 November, are enrolled in LAWS3500 Legal Philosophy and/or LAWS4620 Alternative Dispute Resolution for the following academic year who are eligible to graduate at the end of that academic year or at the end of semester one of the following academic year.

Honours Cohort means Eligible Students who are participating in the Honours program.

Honours Committee means the Head of School, the Honours Co-ordinator(s) and the Associate/ Head of School.

Eligible Courses are all Law courses, with the exception of:

(a) courses assessed on a Non-Graded Pass (Pass/Fail) basis;

(b) courses that are studied on a cross-institutional basis; and

(c) general credit advanced standing.

Honours Calculation Average means, for a given student, the sum of the Honours Points for each of that student's Eligible Courses divided by the number of Eligible Courses. When calculating the sum of the Honours Points and the number of Eligible Courses, LAWS4410/LAWS4411 Advanced Research Project A/B will be counted as four (4) Eligible Courses.

Honours Points means, for an Eligible Course, the points set out in the following scale:

(a) a grade of HD is worth 6 Honours Points;

(b) a grade of D is worth 4 Honours Points;

(c) a grade of C is worth 2 Honours Points;

(d) a grade of P is worth 0 Honours Points;

(e) a grade of F is worth -2 Honours Points; and

(f) a grade of FN and WF is worth -2 Honours Points.

1.2 Honours Calculation Average

The Honours Calculation Average for a given student in the Graduating Class is to be determined as follows:

Step 1 - Calculate the Honours Points for each of the Eligible Courses for which the student has been awarded a grade.

Step 2 - Calculate the Honours Calculation Average for the student.

1.3 Admission to the Honours Program in Law

(i) Admission to the Law Honours program is by invitation only and is subject to approval by the Head of School in consultation with the Honours Committee.

(ii) A student who is enrolled in a Program part-time may enrol in the Honours program with the Head of School's approval.

(iii) The Law Honours program is to be completed in a student's final full year of academic study.

1.4 Selection Criteria

(i) The Honours Coordinator, in consultation with the Head of School, will determine at the end of each academic year, the eligibility of the members of the Graduating Class to participate in the Honours program for the following academic year.

(ii) Subject to 1.4(v) below, the academic performance of a student will be the sole basis for determining whether a student is eligible to participate in the Honours program, and that academic performance will be judged according to the Honours Points principles detailed in this Regulation.

(iii) The eligibility of a student for participation in the Honours program will not be considered unless and until they:

(a) have completed or are enrolled in LAWS3500 Legal Philosophy and/or LAWS4620 Alternative Dispute Resolution; and

(b) are in their final full year of academic study.

(iv) To be eligible to participate in the Honours program a student must:

(a) have obtained a minimum Honours Calculation Average of 3 over the program of their Bachelor of Laws Award; and

(b) using the Honours Calculation Average, fall within the top 20% of the Graduating Class.

(v) The Head of School, in consultation with the Honours Committee, will invite those students who are eligible to participate in the Honours program to apply to enter the program. In deciding whether an eligible student can participate in the Honours program, the Head of School may, in consultation with the Honours Committee, take into account matters such as academic performance and School resources. No student will be deemed to be enrolled in the Honours program until the Head of School (or delegate) has formally accepted that student's application in writing.

(vi) The Head of School's decision on eligibility for entry into the Honours program is final.

1.5 Deferral of Participation in the Honours Program

(i) An Eligible Student who has been invited to enter the Honours program may apply to the Head of School in writing to defer their participation in the Honours program.

(ii) In considering whether to grant the deferral, the Head of School must consult with the Honours Committee and may take into account the academic performance of the student, the grounds for the deferral and any other matters that the Head of School considers relevant.

(iii) The Head of School will advise the Eligible Student in writing as to whether their application to defer their participation in the Honours program has been successful.

(iv) The Head of School's decision as to whether or not to grant the deferral is final.

(v) If the Head of School approves the deferral then:

(a) to determine whether the student falls within the top 20% of the graduating class, the student is deemed to be a part of the Graduating Class which they were a part of when they were invited into the Honours program; and

(b) to determine the final grade and mark for their performance in LAWS4410/LAWS4411 Advanced Research Project A/B in accordance with.1.6(v) (below), the student is deemed to be a part of the Honours Cohort for the year in which they complete LAWS4410/LAWS4411 Advanced Research Project A/B.

1.6 Eligibility for Award of Honours

(i) If an Eligible Student is accepted into the Honours program, the student must successfully complete the course of LAWS4410/LAWS4411 Advanced Research Project A/B which is a substitute for and the equivalent of two Law electives. In completing this course the student is required to undertake legal research upon a topic approved by the Honours Coordinator (or delegate) and to present the results of that research in a 12,000-word research paper (the thesis).

(ii) A principal supervisor must be appointed to oversee the research undertaken in fulfilling the requirements of LAWS4410/LAWS4411 Advanced Research Project A/B. A co-supervisor may also be appointed.

(iii) There will be a minimum of two readers of the thesis, one of whom must produce a formal examination report to the Head of School (or delegate).

(iv) Neither the principal supervisor nor any co-supervisor may be appointed as the examiner of the thesis.

(v) The student will be awarded a final grade and mark for their performance in LAWS4410/LAWS4411 Advanced Research Project A/B.

(vi) To be eligible for the award of Honours, at the completion of the final year of their Bachelor of Laws (Honours)/Bachelor of Philosophy, Politics, Economics Award, a student must have maintained an Honours Calculation Average of at least 3 throughout this Award. A student who has not maintained an Honours Calculation Average of 3 may nonetheless graduate with a Bachelor of Laws/Bachelor of Philosophy, Politics, Economics Award provided they have satisfied the academic requirements of the Award.

(vii) The Class of Honours for each student will be determined by the Board of Examiners upon recommendation by the Honours Coordinator. The Honours Coordinator's recommendation will be made after consultation with the Head of School (and/or his or her delegate) and the Honours Committee, and will be based on a comparative analysis of the Honours Calculation Average and theses of the students participating in the Honours program.

1.7 Examination of Honours Research Component

Examination of the Honours research component is detailed in the LAWS4410/LAWS4411 Advanced Research Project A/B Thesis Marking Guide/Examiners Report.

1.8 Awarding Honours

Honours within the Bachelor of Laws/Bachelor of Philosophy, Politics, Economics is awarded in accordance with General Regulations as graded Honours.
