

200 years since the birth of Florence
Nightingale
– pioneer of modern Nursing
(b.12 May 1820)

2020

INTERNATIONAL YEAR OF THE NURSE AND MIDWIFE

notredame.edu.au/
nursing&midwifery20

2000

Bachelor of Nursing program established in Fremantle and Broome

2002

Establishment of the Postgraduate Department

2003

Graduation of the first Nursing cohort

2007

International program is introduced. Immersion programs established to Cambodia, Vietnam, Laos and Tanzania

2011

Renamed School of Nursing & Midwifery in acknowledgment of the new midwifery program for 2012

2019

To date over 5,000 Nursing & Midwifery students have graduated on the Fremantle and Broome Campuses

School of Nursing & Midwifery celebrating 20 years of excellence

SAVE THE DATE

JAN

Honouring Mother Teresa – Patron Saint of the School of Nursing & Midwifery

FEB

Orientation Day – new students welcomed

School of Nursing & Midwifery's birthday

Photo competition (full details online)

MAR

Higher Degree by Research Symposium

Launch of the Nursing & Midwifery Exhibition

APR

Blessing of Hands – Mass and Ceremony

MAY

Celebrating International Nurses Day

and International Midwives Day

Notre Dame Nursing Students (NDNS)

Campus event

Nursing & Midwifery Alumni Reunion

JUN

Nursing & Midwifery Awards Ceremony

JUL

Fremantle Graduation Ceremony

AUG

Broome Graduation Ceremony and celebrations

SEP

Notre Dame Nursing Society

Undergraduate Nursing & Midwifery

Student Conference

OCT

Oration Series

Research Symposium

NOV

Cocktail Evening and

20th Anniversary Book Launch

DEC

Fremantle Graduation Ceremony

For the latest dates, times and event information visit [notredame.edu.au/
nursing&midwifery20](https://notredame.edu.au/nursing&midwifery20)