

My eQuals – Certified Digital Academic Records

My eQuals is an initiative between Australian and New Zealand universities to provide a secure digital platform to issue and authenticate digital academic records (AHEGS, Official Academic Transcripts, and Testamurs).

The My eQuals platform enables students and graduates to access digital versions of transcripts and academic documents and share them with employers, universities or other parties.

My eQuals Registration

The first time you access My eQuals, you will need to complete a registration process.

When the University uploads your first document (e.g. transcript) to My eQuals, you will receive an email to your ND student email account, as shown in the example below:

Dear Gabriela

A digital Transcript from the University of Notre Dame has been issued to you and is ready for viewing and secure sharing online through the My eQuals portal.

This document is digitally signed to ensure authenticity.

To gain access to your Transcript, and to share it with third parties, please register for a My eQuals account using the link below:
