Monthly Research Update

School of Arts &
Sciences

Dear A & S colleagues,

I hope you are doing well out there in your home-work environment. One thing I am doing to keep sane, now home and work are even more conflated than usual, is to read novels. At the moment I am enjoying Charlotte Wood's Stella-shortlisted novel The Weekend. I read her 2016 Stella-winning novel The Natural Way of Things a few years ago, and at that point she became one of my favourite writers. Next in my reading pile - or tsundoku, as the Japanese call it - is Albert Camus' The Plague, which I expect to be quite surreal reading in this current environment...

If you are looking for something to read, you can try one of the above or just read this issue of our Monthly Research Update! There are still plenty of opportunities to think about applying for, or online research workshops to attend.

Take care, stay well.

Dr Christine de Matos, Associate Dean, AD & R
