Reading Pope Leo XIV's encyclical on AI

Thursday 4 June | 7:00pm – 8:15pm AEST

Pope Leo's highly anticipated encyclical on AI has been released.

Join us for an online panel event to hear from international and national experts on the encyclical's background and themes and to discuss its significance for the way we engage with artificial intelligence tools individually and collectively.

Our panellists bring a range of perspectives to the encyclical's development and interpretation.

Associate Professor
