

THE UNIVERSITY OF NOTRE DAME AUSTRALIA

Bachelor of Arts (Major: Archaeology)

Bachelor of Arts (Major: Archaeology)

School of Arts & Sciences

Are you fascinated by archaeology? Understanding past human behaviour informs our view of modern society and its challenges. This dynamic global discipline draws on the sciences and the humanities to interpret the physical evidence left by humans and their ancestors around the planet. A double degree from the University of Notre Dame will prepare you to process evidence at sites to form the best interpretation of past human behaviour. Get in touch today to find out more about this exciting program.

Why study this major?

The University of Notre Dame Australia's Bachelor of Arts with an Archaeology Major draws on both the sciences and the humanities to interpret the physical evidence left by humans and their ancestors around the planet.

Practitioners use information from geography, history, mathematics, biology, anthropology, chemistry and sociology. The archaeology Major provides comprehensive training in archaeological methods and theory, field survey and excavation, and Aboriginal and maritime archaeology, with a solid Australian focus.

Archaeology is available as a Major and Minor in the following programs, including double-degree variations:

Learning outcomes

Upon successful completion of the Bachelor of Arts graduates should be able to;

1. Demonstrate broad theoretical and practical knowledge, with depth in the underlying principles and concepts of one or more disciplines or practice areas
2. Identify appropriate sources and evaluate information
3. Demonstrate an awareness of different conceptual approaches and/or research methods
4. Demonstrate the technical skills, professional skills and ethical practice required by one or more disciplines
5. Synthesise knowledge and apply skills in order to solve complex problems
6. Communicate arguments and/or ideas in a range of forms
7. Work independently and, where appropriate, in collaboration with others
8. Reflect upon personal knowledge, skills and experiences

Career opportunities

Graduates find employment in a range of areas such as heritage advisors for mining companies and government departments, while positions for Archaeologists exist in the Western Australia Museum and Maritime Museum.

The State Department of Premier and Cabinet and the Federal National Native Title Tribunal recruits those with skills in archaeology for roles determining Native Title claims.

Specific careers include:

- Archaeologist
- Heritage Consultant
- Museum Curator
- Native Title Project Officer with Aboriginal corporations, non-government organisations (NGOs), resources companies or government departments

Real-world experience

You will learn from our academics, who are leaders in their field. While not a requirement, internship courses and work-integrated learning opportunities are available to enable you to gain on-the-job experience with professionals in your chosen field.

Honours

An Honours award is available for this program. Further information can be found in the Bachelor of Arts \(Honours\) regulations

Fees and costs

This Program has the following loan scheme(s) available for eligible students:

Commonwealth Supported Place (CSP)

A Commonwealth Supported Place (CSP) is a place at a university where the Australian Government pays part of your fees. This part is a subsidy, not a loan, and you don't have to pay it back. However, this subsidy does not cover the entire cost of your study. Students must pay the rest, which is called the 'student contribution amount'.

In a Commonwealth Supported Place, your fees are subsidised by the Australian Government. Your fees will be split into two portions:

The Commonwealth contribution, which is the portion paid by the Australian Government.

The student contribution, which is the portion you pay. You may choose to pay upfront or defer your student contribution with a HECS-HELP Loan. The HECS-HELP loan scheme \(https://www.studyassist.gov.au/preview-link/node/106/5de65e70-6656-4297-a79d-19fd4a6deadd\) assists eligible students with the payment of all, or part, of their tuition fees, not including additional study costs such as accommodation or textbooks. Your HECS-HELP debt will be indexed each year in line with the Consumer Price Index.

Eligible students will be offered a CSP – you do not need to apply.

International Full-Fee Paying

Tuition costs depend on an international student's study load and discipline. Fees are payable each semester at least four weeks prior to the commencement of your program.

For indicative fees and information on how to pay, including Government loan schemes and our online calculator, visit our Fees, costs and scholarships page (<https://www.notredame.edu.au/study/fees-costs-and-scholarships>).
