Bachelor of Arts (Second Major: Business)

Bachelor of Arts (Second Major: Business)

School of Arts & Sciences

Do you wish to improve your commercial skills while working in a creative field? The University of Notre Dame Australia's Bachelor of Arts with a Second Major in Business will help you successfully harness commerce and apply it to your area of choice. This degree will provide a solid foundation for modern commercial practice and consist of five core courses, such as Business Law, Marketing and Economics, plus several electives. Get in touch to enrol today.

Why study this degree?

As part of The University of Notre Dame Australia's Bachelor of Arts, our Business Second Major will provide you with a solid grounding in modern business practice, allowing you to successfully operate in several working environments – from government departments to private enterprises and the not-for-profit sector.

You can choose from a wide range of business-related units, such as Marketing, Innovation, Business Law, Strategic Management, Entrepreneurship and the Psychology of Work.

Apart from attending several campus-based lectures and tutorials, you will also complete 150 hours of work experience. This ensures that you get plenty of hands-on training during your degree and have the opportunity to showcase your learnings in a real-world setting.

Our Business Second Major will equip you with the underpinning commercial skills required to operate a successful business environment. Business as a Second Major must be paired with another Arts stream such as Advertising, Applied Psychology, History, Journalism, English Literature, Film & Screen Production or Theatre Studies.

Fees and costs

This Program has the following loan scheme(s) available for eligible students:

Commonwealth Supported Place (CSP)

A Commonwealth Supported Place (CSP) is a place at a university where the Australian Government pays part of your fees. This part is a subsidy, not a loan, and you don't have to pay it back. However, this subsidy does not cover the entire cost of your study. Students must pay the rest, which is called the 'student contribution amount'.

In a Commonwealth Supported Place, your fees are subsidised by the Australian Government. Your fees will be split into two portions:

The Commonwealth contribution, which is the portion paid by the Australian Government.

The student contribution, which is the portion you pay. You may choose to pay upfront or defer your student contribution with a HECS-HELP Loan. The HECS-HELP loan scheme (<https://www.studyassist.gov.au/preview-link/node/106/5de65e70-6656-4297-a79d-19fd4a6deadd>) assists eligible students with the payment of all, or part, of their tuition fees, not including additional study costs such as accommodation or textbooks. Your HECS-HELP debt will be indexed each year in line with the Consumer Price Index.

Eligible students will be offered a CSP – you do not need to apply.

International Full-Fee Paying

Tuition costs depend on an international student's study load and discipline. Fees are payable each semester at least four weeks prior to the commencement of your program.

For indicative fees and information on how to pay, including Government loan schemes and our online calculator, visit our Fees, costs and scholarships page (<https://www.notredame.edu.au/study/fees-costs-and-scholarships>).
