Photomedia (Specialisation)

School of Arts & Sciences

Are you interested in media and the creative industries? The Photomedia (Specialisation) at The University of Notre Dame Australia could be your qualification. This short course integrates photography and media post-production skills and is an excellent addition to your studies in Media & Communications, particularly our Screen Arts and Journalism Majors. Combining theory and practice, our dynamic Photomedia courses will help you develop contemporary media skills to suit various professions. Contact us today to find out more.

Why study this program?

Never have images been more powerful than they are today. Our Photomedia Specialisation is a short qualification that equips you to have an impact on media, popular culture, creative industries, education and business. Combining photography with digital post-production, the Photomedia Specialisation requires only 100 units of credit (or four courses) to complete. It fits agilely within Notre Dame degrees, including double degrees in Law, Education and Commerce, adding to the professional skills you graduate with.

You will develop highly transferable skills in the Photomedia Specialisation, including working to a creative brief, collaboration, critical thinking, objective analysis, constructive feedback, and successful management of workflow and time pressures, which will stand you in good stead with employers.

The Photomedia Specialisation is available in the following degrees:

- Bachelor of Arts
- Bachelor of Arts (Architecture)

- Bachelor of Behavioural Science
- Bachelor of Communications & Media
- Bachelor of Science

Program summary

The Photomedia Specialisation is available within a range of Notre Dame single and double degrees. It requires the completion of 100 units of credit (that is, four courses), taken from within the elective courses of your degree.

Students must complete the following course:

- COMM1000 Digital Photography

Plus THREE of the following courses, to a total of 100 units of credit (or, four courses):

- COMM2000 Aesthetics and Practice of Photography
- COMM2002 Travel Writing and Photography
- COMM3070 Photojournalism
- ARTS3002 Internship or Professional Project
- Course substitution is permitted with the approval of the Dean.

Fees and costs

This Program has the following loan scheme(s) available for eligible students:

CSP

A Commonwealth Supported Place (CSP) is a place at university where the government pays part of your fees. This part is a subsidy, not a loan, and you don't have to pay it back.

However, this subsidy does not cover the entire cost of your study. Students must pay the rest, called the 'student contribution amount'.

In a Commonwealth Supported Place, your fees are subsidised by the Australian Government. Your fees will be split into two portions:

- The Commonwealth contribution, which is the portion paid by the Australian Government.
- The student contribution, which is the portion you pay. You may choose to pay upfront or defer your student contribution with a HECS-HELP Loan.

Eligible students will be offered a CSP – you do not need to apply.

HECS-HELP

The HECS-HELP loan scheme assists eligible students with the payment of all, or part, of their tuition fees, not including additional study costs such as accommodation or textbooks. Your HECS-HELP debt will be indexed each year in line with the Consumer Price Index.

For indicative fees and information on how to pay, including Government loan schemes and our online calculator, visit our Fees Page \(https://www.notredame.edu.au/study/fees-costs-and-scholarships\).
