Bachelor of Commerce (Major: Finance)

School of Law & Business

They say money makes the world go round. It's true. No matter which organisation you work for, chances are they are earning, borrowing, spending, investing, or moving money around the world. When you study the University of Notre Dame Australia's Bachelor of Commerce with a Finance Major, you will learn the ways in which people, institutions, markets, governments, and countries manage their finances. Graduates can choose to work in the public sector, a private company or a not-for-profit organisation. Get in touch today to find out more.

Why study this degree?

If you wish to succeed in the modern business world a Notre Dame University Australia Bachelor of Commerce with a Major in Finance will equip you with the skills, you need to succeed. Our world-class degree focuses on team-based learning and assessments that utilise real-world case studies.

Initially, you will build a strong foundation of business knowledge, with eight courses covering Accounting, Business Communication, Business IT, Business Law, Economics, Quantitative Methods, and the Principles of Management and Marketing. You will then build on this knowledge with six finance-specific subjects such as Corporate Finance, International Finance and more.

You will learn and develop the analytical skills necessary to handle the planning, management, and control of a company's financial resources, as well as the ability to evaluate the level of risk and return.

At the end of the program, all graduates are eligible to join the Financial Services Institute of Australasia (FINSIA), ensuring you are supported by an official industry body.

As part of your degree, you will be required to undertake 150 hours of practicum. Our Business internship program includes seminars on career planning and professional development, as well as presentations by industry leaders from companies like ICM, Coca-Cola Amatil and Microsoft.

Fees and costs

This Program has the following loan scheme(s) available for eligible students:

CSP

A Commonwealth Supported Place (CSP) is a place at university where the government pays part of your fees. This part is a subsidy, not a loan, and you don't have to pay it back.

However, this subsidy does not cover the entire cost of your study. Students must pay the rest, called the 'student contribution amount'.

In a Commonwealth Supported Place, your fees are subsidised by the Australian Government. Your fees will be split into two portions:

- The Commonwealth contribution, which is the portion paid by the Australian Government.
- The student contribution, which is the portion you pay. You may choose to pay upfront or defer your student contribution with a HECS-HELP Loan.

Eligible students will be offered a CSP – you do not need to apply.

HECS-HELP

The HECS-HELP loan scheme assists eligible students with the payment of all, or part, of their tuition fees, not including additional study costs such as accommodation or textbooks. Your HECS-HELP debt will be indexed each year in line with the Consumer Price Index.

For indicative fees and information on how to pay, including Government loan schemes and our online calculator, visit our Fees Page (<https://www.notredame.edu.au/study/fees-costs-> and-scholarships).
