Graduate Certificate in Liberal Arts

School of Philosophy & Theology

Are you interested in spiritual and ethical development? The University of Notre Dame Australia's Graduate Certificate in Liberal Arts offers a systematic introduction to some of the significant themes of philosophy and theology. The program will improve your understanding of the University's Core Curriculum, foster spiritual development, and help you integrate the core curriculum's fundamental principles and ideas into your wider academic work. You can complete this program over two years of part-time study. Enrol today to start your learning journey.

Why study this degree?

The Graduate Certificate in Liberal Arts is designed to provide you with an understanding of the principles and goals behind the University of Notre Dame's Core Curriculum. The program is a direct link to the Objects of the University and offers education in the context of our mission and ethics.

Within our intimate class settings, you will find opportunities for spiritual and ethical development and a chance to learn more about philosophy and theology within the context of the Catholic faith. Successful completion of this course will give you a greater understanding of the Core Curriculum and help you better integrate the Core Curriculum within your academic discipline.

The Graduate Certificate in Liberal Arts includes exposure to Core teaching and a discussion of the purpose and goals of the Core Curriculum, as well as possibilities for integrating the Core with other academic disciplines. You will have the opportunity to engage in philosophical reasoning, ethical decision-making, and theological reflection in the Catholic tradition.
