

THE UNIVERSITY OF NOTRE DAME AUSTRALIA

Bachelor of Advertising and Public Relations

Bachelor of Advertising and Public Relations

School of Law & Business

In keeping with our reputation for producing 'job-ready' graduates, The University of Notre Dame Australia's Bachelor of Advertising and Public Relations program guarantees a thorough grounding in all aspects of modern advertising and public relations. Apart from a range of expert lecturers, our students also benefit from a unique internship program which provides practical skills and the foundations for a professional network. Contact us today to find out more.

Why study this degree?

If you're looking for a fast-paced and exciting career, a Bachelor of Advertising and Public Relations could be the perfect degree for you. This program combines artistic and managerial disciplines by combining skills-based learning, embedded internships with some of Australia's biggest agencies, and individual tutoring.

Communications professionals highly regard the degree. And our graduates are eligible to join the Australian Marketing Institute (AMI), the International Advertising Association (IAA) and the Public Relations Institute of Australia (PRIA). Available as a three-year full-time program, the Bachelor of Advertising and Public Relations covers the gamut of activities within the two disciplines.

The program provides the essential building blocks for a successful career, with courses in Accounting for Business, Economics, Business Law, Media Planning, Consumer Behaviour, Advertising and Promotion and Professional Writing.

Thanks to its solid practical component (and excellent industry networks), our graduates find work in several disparate industries and occupations. While many work in advertising agencies and public relations firms, others pursue careers in market research, media planning, event management, recruitment, tourism, retailing and corporate communication.

Fees and costs

This Program has the following loan scheme(s) available for eligible students:

Commonwealth Supported Place (CSP)

A Commonwealth Supported Place (CSP) is a place at a university where the Australian Government pays part of your fees. This part is a subsidy, not a loan, and you don't have to pay it back. However, this subsidy does not cover the entire cost of your study. Students must pay the rest, which is called the 'student contribution amount'.

In a Commonwealth Supported Place, your fees are subsidised by the Australian Government. Your fees will be split into two portions:

The Commonwealth contribution, which is the portion paid by the Australian Government.

The student contribution, which is the portion you pay. You may choose to pay upfront or defer your student contribution with a HECS-HELP Loan. The HECS-HELP loan scheme (<https://www.studyassist.gov.au/preview-link/node/106/5de65e70-6656-4297-a79d-19fd4a6deadd>) assists eligible students with the payment of all, or part, of their tuition fees, not including additional study costs such as accommodation or textbooks. Your HECS-HELP debt will be indexed each year in line with the Consumer Price Index.

Eligible students will be offered a CSP – you do not need to apply.

International Full-Fee Paying

Tuition costs depend on an international student's study load and discipline. Fees are payable each semester at least four weeks prior to the commencement of your program.

For indicative fees and information on how to pay, including Government loan schemes and our online calculator, visit our Fees, costs and scholarships page \(https://www.notredame.edu.au/study/fees-costs-and-scholarships\).
