

THE UNIVERSITY OF NOTRE DAME AUSTRALIA

Bachelor of Marketing & Public Relations

Bachelor of Marketing & Public Relations

School of Law & Business

Communicating with clients and stakeholders through marketing and public relations campaigns requires clarity, currency and knowledge of companies and organisations. This is particularly the case in a constantly changing landscape where consumers are becoming more discerning and demanding and do not hesitate to publicly articulate their opinions and experiences through social media channels. With traditional methods of marketing communications becoming less effective, the rise of digital formats has opened new and exciting methods of corporate communication. Our Bachelor of Marketing & Public Relations program equips you with the practical and analytical skills to proactively engage with all stakeholders and promote any business.

Why study this degree?

Our Bachelor of Marketing & Public Relations program equips you with the practical and analytical skills to proactively engage with all stakeholders and promote any business.

Our Bachelor's degree is a comprehensive degree available to study full-time over three years or part-time equivalent. You will learn foundation business skills such as accounting, management, business communication, business law, and business information technology before embarking on a range of courses which focus more specifically on the latest theories of marketing and public relations.

The University of Notre Dame Australia is proud to combine practical skills with individual-focused tuition. This ensures that every one of our graduates enters the workplace ready to thrive and succeed.

As part of your degree, you will be required to undertake 150 hours of practical experience in some of Australia's most respected and high-profile companies – these placements are a significant preparation for your life after university.

As the only integrated marketing and public relations degree in NSW, our graduates are all eligible to join the Australian Marketing Institute (AMI) and the Public Relations Institute of Australia (PRIA).

Fees and costs

This Program has the following loan scheme(s) available for eligible students:

Commonwealth Supported Place (CSP)

A Commonwealth Supported Place (CSP) is a place at a university where the Australian Government pays part of your fees. This part is a subsidy, not a loan, and you don't have to pay it back. However, this subsidy does not cover the entire cost of your study. Students must pay the rest, which is called the 'student contribution amount'.

In a Commonwealth Supported Place, your fees are subsidised by the Australian Government. Your fees will be split into two portions:

The Commonwealth contribution, which is the portion paid by the Australian Government.

The student contribution, which is the portion you pay. You may choose to pay upfront or defer your student contribution with a HECS-HELP Loan. The HECS-HELP loan scheme \(https://www.studyassist.gov.au/preview-link/node/106/5de65e70-6656-4297-a79d-19fd4a6deadd\) assists eligible students with the payment of all, or part, of their tuition fees, not including additional study costs such as accommodation or textbooks. Your HECS-HELP debt will be indexed each year in line with the Consumer Price Index.

Eligible students will be offered a CSP – you do not need to apply.

International Full-Fee Paying

Tuition costs depend on an international student's study load and discipline. Fees are payable each semester at least four weeks prior to the commencement of your program.

For indicative fees and information on how to pay, including Government loan schemes and our online calculator, visit our Fees, costs and scholarships page (<https://www.notredame.edu.au/study/fees-costs-and-scholarships>).
