Bachelor of Arts (Major: Sociology)

School of Arts & Sciences

Are you interested in the complex and constantly shifting relationship between individuals and society? As a sociology student, you will examine contemporary issues facing society through a social and historical lens and common-sense question assumptions taken for granted. Over the course of your Bachelor of Arts degree with a Sociology Major, you will gain the tools you need to tackle various social problems such as inequality and social exclusion and skills to investigate and understand social issues. Contact us today to enrol in this thought-provoking degree.

Why study this degree?

The University of Notre Dame Australia's Bachelor of Arts with a Major in Sociology is a three-year, full-time degree. In this program, you will look at issues such as the sociology of childhood, gender, the impact of ability through disability studies, public and social policy and genocide. Sociology explores how social relationships and structures shape our everyday lives and lets you see the world through various sociological perspectives.

The study of sociology offers graduates a systematic framework from which to examine a wide range of issues facing contemporary society, inform professional practice and contribute to society. It also offers you practical tools to research social issues.

With skills in inquiry, analysis and research, Sociology graduates can undertake careers as practitioners within the community, government and non-government agencies in roles focusing on social and consumer research, social and public policy, social welfare, advocacy, policy, education, public relations, public service and journalism and the media.

Fees and costs

This Program has the following loan scheme(s) available for eligible students:

Commonwealth Supported Place (CSP)

A Commonwealth Supported Place (CSP) is a place at a university where the Australian Government pays part of your fees. This part is a subsidy, not a loan, and you don't have to pay it back. However, this subsidy does not cover the entire cost of your study. Students must pay the rest, which is called the 'student contribution amount'.

In a Commonwealth Supported Place, your fees are subsidised by the Australian Government. Your fees will be split into two portions:

The Commonwealth contribution, which is the portion paid by the Australian Government.

The student contribution, which is the portion you pay. You may choose to pay upfront or defer your student contribution with a HECS-HELP Loan. The HECS-HELP loan scheme \(https://www.studyassist.gov.au/preview-link/node/106/5de65e70-6656-4297-a79d-19fd4a6deadd\) assists eligible students with the payment of all, or part, of their tuition fees, not including additional study costs such as accommodation or textbooks. Your HECS-HELP debt will be indexed each year in line with the Consumer Price Index.

Eligible students will be offered a CSP – you do not need to apply.

International Full-Fee Paying

Tuition costs depend on an international student's study load and discipline. Fees are payable each semester at least four weeks prior to the commencement of your program.

For indicative fees and information on how to pay, including Government loan schemes and our online calculator, visit our Fees, costs and scholarships page \(https://www.notredame.edu.au/study/fees-costs-and-scholarships\).
