

THE UNIVERSITY OF NOTRE DAME AUSTRALIA

Undergraduate Certificate in Arts

School of Arts & Sciences

The Undergraduate Certificate in Arts offers students the opportunity to experience University-level studies in the Humanities and Social Sciences. Students will learn how to research and analyse critical issues, and develop skills in presenting information and arguments.

Why study this certificate?

The Undergraduate Certificate in Arts offers an opportunity to acquire new knowledge and skills, and could complement existing qualifications for some students. The Undergraduate Certificate in Arts is a pathway to further study of higher awards, such as a Diploma or Bachelor degree.

The Undergraduate Certificate in Arts is designed for students who:

- Want to do short courses in different disciplines, including History, Archaeology, Politics and

International Relations, Literature and Writing

- Want to pursue in-depth study of a subject area that is relevant to their profession
- Are returning to or entering university for the first time and would like to 'trial' whether they would like to proceed with further study
- Would like a pathway to further study into a Bachelor of Arts, Bachelor of Behavioural Science or Bachelor of Communications and Media

Entry Requirements

The minimum entry requirements

(<https://www.notredame.edu.au/study/admission-requirements>) of The University of Notre Dame Australia apply for the Undergraduate Certificate in Arts.

While minimum entry requirements need to be met, we also consider a student's application more broadly — their non-academic achievements (professional work experience, leadership roles, volunteering, community and/or church involvement), as well as their personal qualities, aspirations, interests and capacity to successfully complete this program.
