Undergraduate Certificate in Counselling

School of Arts & Sciences

If you are returning to study or entering University for the first time, The University of Notre Dame Australia's Undergraduate Certificate in Counselling offers students the opportunity to experience University-level study in counselling and development psychology. Students learn key approaches to counselling practice and develop skills in listening, critical reflection and structuring an interview session. Get in touch to start your learning journey.

Why study this certificate?

The Undergraduate Certificate in Counselling is ideal if you are new to university. It offers an opportunity to acquire new skills and practice in Counselling that may add to a student's other professional qualifications. An Undergraduate Certificate in Counselling is a pathway to study for higher awards, such as a diploma or bachelor's degree.

The Undergraduate Certificate in Counselling is designed for you if:

- You would like to add value to your existing professional experience and qualifications by gaining counselling skills. The program would be suited to professionals in human resource management, teaching, chaplaincy and social work, to name a few
- You are returning to or entering university and trialling whether you would like to proceed with further study in Counselling
- You would like a pathway to further study into such degrees as a Bachelor of Counselling

Entry requirements

The minimum entry requirements

(<https://www.notredame.edu.au/study/applications-and-admissions/admission-requirements>) of The University of Notre Dame Australia apply for the Undergraduate Certificate in Counselling.

While minimum entry requirements need to be met, we also consider a student's application more broadly — their non-academic achievements (professional work experience, leadership roles, volunteering, community and/or church involvement), as well as their personal qualities, aspirations, interests and capacity to successfully complete this program.

Learning outcomes

At the completion of this course, graduates should be able to:

1. Demonstrate broad theoretical and applied knowledge
2. Communicate arguments and/or ideas in a range of forms
3. Evaluate appropriate sources and information
4. Demonstrate research skills
5. Synthesise knowledge and apply skills in order to solve sometimes complex problems
6. Work independently and, where appropriate, in collaboration with others

Career opportunities

Fees and costs

This Program has the following loan scheme(s) available for eligible students:

Commonwealth Supported Place (CSP)

A Commonwealth Supported Place (CSP) is a place at a university where the Australian Government pays part of your fees. This part is a subsidy, not a loan, and you don't have to pay it back. However, this subsidy does not cover the entire cost of your study. Students must pay the rest, which is called the 'student contribution amount'.

In a Commonwealth Supported Place, your fees are subsidised by the Australian Government. Your fees will be split into two portions:

The Commonwealth contribution, which is the portion paid by the Australian Government.

The student contribution, which is the portion you pay. You may choose to pay upfront or defer your student contribution with a HECS-HELP Loan. The HECS-HELP loan scheme (<https://www.studyassist.gov.au/preview-link/node/106/5de65e70-6656-4297-a79d-19fd4a6deadd>) assists eligible students with the payment of all, or part, of their tuition fees, not including additional study costs such as accommodation or textbooks. Your HECS-HELP debt will be indexed each year in line with the Consumer Price Index.

Eligible students will be offered a CSP – you do not need to apply.
