

THE UNIVERSITY OF NOTRE DAME AUSTRALIA

Graduate Diploma of Business

School of Business

Building on the Graduate Certificate in Business, our Graduate Diploma of Business expands and builds on your existing business skills. This graduate degree explores a number of areas that are crucial to modern business practice, such as ethics, leadership, strategic management, innovation and human resource management.

Why study this program?

At Notre Dame's School of Business, you will be taught by passionate and dedicated educators who are all respected leaders in their field. This ensures you will develop the skills needed to succeed in a rapidly-changing work environment.

As part of the program, you will be required to study four core subjects, exploring issues related to the ethics of business, accounting, strategic management, leadership and HR management. You will then have the opportunity to tailor your program with four electives.

Upon completion of the diploma, you will have the opportunity to pursue further studies at a Master's level, furthering your competitive edge in the workplace.
