Bachelor of Commerce (Major: Economics)

School of Law & Business

If you're curious about how the world works the way it does, then you should consider The University of Notre Dame Australia's Major in Economics. During this program, you will receive a thorough grounding in the principles of marketing and management, before moving on to the intricacies of micro and macroeconomic theory and policy. Over the course of your studies, you will use economic reasoning to solve pressing social and business problems. Contact us today to find out more.

Why study this degree?

Whether you're considering a career in economics, human resource management, accounting, finance, marketing, or management, a Bachelor of Commerce (Major: Economics) from The University of Notre Dame Australia will put you ahead of the pack.

A Major in economics at Notre Dame will give you the skills to solve a range of problems through economic reasoning. Covering both theoretical and applied skills of modern economics and econometrics, this program is ideal training for a wide range of roles across many industry sectors. Graduates work on such complex issues as poverty, financial crises, industrial downturns, environmental damage, and political turmoil.

By equipping our students with the practical skills to tackle real-world problems, a Major in Economics prepares you for employment in both the public and private sectors.

This three-year program can be taken full-time or the equivalent part-time and combines a series of workshop sessions, lectures by visiting speakers and a most extensive business internship program. You will also receive help with career planning and professional development.

Learning outcomes

Upon successful completion of the Bachelor of Commerce graduates will be able to:

1. Apply the professional skills of their chosen business discipline through the ethical delivery of strategy, advice and services
2. Reflect on their performance and implement change as necessary
3. Think critically, reason and use judgment in preparation for their professional practice
4. Identify relevant evidence-based research for use in professional analysis and advice
5. Identify their own values and beliefs and be empowered to act on these values to advocate for people with whom they are engaged.

Practical component

You are required to complete BUSN3900 Business Internship that includes a minimum of 150 hours of practicum.

Career opportunities

Graduates of this program can follow diverse career paths in the private and public sectors; the following careers are open to graduates: economists, financial analysts, bankers, and policy advisors in the fields of banking, mining, retail, government, and more.

Real-world experience

You will learn from academics who are industry leaders and, through our practicum placements and internship programs, you will gain real professional experience and make valuable contacts with potential employers.

Study abroad

A global perspective adds a valuable dimension to your university education. At Notre Dame University you can study while experiencing the world. We encourage students to become active global citizens through a range of exchange programs, professional placements, study tours, and volunteer opportunities. Visit International Opportunities (<https://www.notredame.edu.au/study/international-students>) to find out more.

Fees and costs

This Program has the following loan scheme(s) available for eligible students:

CSP

A Commonwealth Supported Place (CSP) is a place at university where the government pays part of your fees. This part is a subsidy, not a loan, and you don't have to pay it back. However, this subsidy does not cover the entire cost of your study. Students must pay the rest, called the 'student contribution amount'.

In a Commonwealth Supported Place, your fees are subsidised by the Australian Government. Your fees will be split into two portions:

- The Commonwealth contribution, which is the portion paid by the Australian Government.
- The student contribution, which is the portion you pay. You may choose to pay upfront or defer your student contribution with a HECS-HELP Loan.

Eligible students will be offered a CSP – you do not need to apply.

HECS-HELP

The HECS-HELP loan scheme assists eligible students with the payment of all, or part, of their tuition fees, not including additional study costs such as accommodation or textbooks. Your HECS-HELP debt will be indexed each year in line with the Consumer Price Index.

For indicative fees and information on how to pay, including Government loan schemes and our online calculator, visit our Fees Page \(https://www.notredame.edu.au/study/fees-costs-and-scholarships\).
